In re: Plea Agreement
State of West Virginia v. Julie Hamstead
Case No. CC-19-2017-M-AP-6
Formerly 16-M19M-01110

Dear Mr. Hamstead:

The State of West Virginia extends the following plea offer to the Defendant. This offer will expire on FEBRUARY 27, 2019, AT 5:00 P.M., unless a written acceptance is received by Jefferson County Prosecuting Attorney's Office prior to the deadline. The terms of the binding plea offer are as follows:

1. The Defendant will plead Nolo Contendere to one (1) count of Disorderly Conduct, in violation of W. Va. Code §61-6-1b.
2. The Defendant will be assessed a minimum fine and court costs.
3. The State agrees to dismiss the remaining count of the above-mentioned case.
4. The parties agree that the plea will be entered within the next 30 days at a time which is convenient for the Court and the parties.
5. If no criminal charges are pending against the Defendant within 60 days following the entry of the plea, the State will not contest a petition for expungement of the Destruction of Property and Obstructing charges, should a petition be filed by the Defendant.
6. The parties agree to request from the Court that Defendant's Disclosure of Rule 404 Evidence, and any supplemental disclosures, be stricken from the court file, or placed under seal.
7. It is further understood and agreed to by defendant that from the date of the signing hereof, should the Defendant commit or be arrested for committing any felony or misdemeanor up to ^{other than a minor traffic violation} ^{B.A.T.} [Handwritten signatures]
